The elegant 3-star Design-Hotel is situated in the heart of Zurich, at the gates of the Old Town and only a few minutes walk from Zurich's main railway station.

The Congress Center can be easily reached by public transportation.

The unostentatious six-story building that housed both a hotel and a theatre was erected at the beginning of the 1950s on a narrow plot of land. Years later, the cinema Alba moved in and to this day functions as a successful arthouse cinema. The hotel guests can relive the hotel's theatrical past both as spectators and participants since the plays that were performed over 40 years ago are omnipresent as an art form, thanks to modern technology.

It is not only the in-house cinema that caters to guests' desire for relaxation and cultural entertainment. Literary entertainment is provided through audio books/audio dramas that, depending on one's mood, narrate dramatic, suspense-packed or humorous stories.

The fifty rooms of the Hotel du Théâtre are each furnished with individual designer pieces and present a harmonious and light-hearted blend of honest design with playful elements
